

Terms and Conditions

Makira Journal of Natural Resource Management and Conservation

By submitting, reviewing, or publishing with the Makira Journal of Natural Resource Management and Conservation, all parties agree to comply with the following terms and conditions:

1. Manuscript Submission and Publication

- All submitted manuscripts must be original, unpublished, and not consider or under review in any other journal.
- Authors should ensure their work complies with the journal's Research Ethics Guidelines, including appropriate citations and permissions.
- The Editor-in-Chief and the editorial board reserve the right to accept, reject, or request revisions to any submitted manuscript.
- Published articles are subject to the journal's Open Access Policy, where applicable, or any specific licensing terms.

2. Peer Review Process

- Manuscripts undergo a double-blind peer review process to ensure academic integrity and quality.
- Reviewers should provide objective, constructive, and timely feedback.
- The journal maintains the confidentiality of submitted manuscripts and review reports.

3. Conflict of Interest and Disclosure

- Authors, reviewers, and editors should disclose any financial, academic, or personal conflicts of interest that could influence the manuscript's review or publication.
- Failure to disclose conflicts of interest may result in manuscript rejection or retraction.

4. Copyright and Licensing

- Authors retain copyright of their work but grant the journal non-exclusive publishing rights.
- The journal may publish articles under Creative Commons Licensing (if applicable) to promote open-access research.
- Any reproduction, distribution, or use of published content must adhere to the specified licensing terms.

5. Plagiarism and Research Misconduct

- The journal strictly prohibits plagiarism, data fabrication, falsification, and duplicate submission.

- Any detected misconduct may result in manuscript retraction, author blacklisting, or institutional notification.
- The journal follows COPE (Committee on Publication Ethics) guidelines in handling ethical violations.

6. Data Protection and Privacy

- The journal ensures that personal data of authors, reviewers, and editors are handled securely.
- Submitted research involving human subjects must comply with ethical guidelines, including informed consent and privacy protection.

7. Withdrawal and Retraction Policy

- Authors may withdraw their manuscript before acceptance, provided they notify the editorial office in writing.
- The journal reserves the right to retract published articles in cases of ethical violations, data manipulation, or legal concerns.

8. Journal Policies and Amendments

- The journal may revise these terms and conditions periodically, and updates will be communicated to stakeholders.
- Continued use of the journal's services constitutes agreement to the latest version of these terms.
